Three Biographies
for countertenor and cello
(2014)

Elizabeth Ogonek
Three Biographies
for countertenor and cello
(2014)

Elizabeth Ogonek
1. James Bahkti

One winter's afternoon, 1989, James Bahkti, then forty-two walked home to find his wife's farewell letter which he stopped reading after line five. He was not a reader anymore; he was a writer. He writes to deal with the fear of mortality. He hasn't put his pen down yet. We thank the medical support team for his superb fiction.

2. Lawrence Senkovic

Lawrence Senkovic, a writer and a scientist, a poet and a genius. Once, he ran into his own brother at a paleontology conference. But who runs into one's own brother at a paleontology conference? Except for those of us who have gone extinct...

3. Saba Ventus

Ghazal Mosadeq 2013/14
Three Biographies

for countertenor and cello

(2014)

1. James Bahkti

Ghazal Mosadeq

Countertenor

Cello

Copyright © 2014 by Elizabeth Ogonek.

ASCAP.

duration: ca. 8 minutes

Copyright © 2014 by Elizabeth Ogonek.

ASCAP.
Suddenly, $\frac{1}{4} = \text{ca. 84}

James Bakh - ti, when for - ty two, walked home to find his wife’s fare - well let - ter which he stopped read - ing after line five.

His

\[ \text{rit.} \quad \text{p} \quad \text{mp} \quad \text{mf} \quad \text{mp}\]
We thank the medical support team for his superb fiction.

He hasn’t put his pen down yet.

with the fear of mortality.
Once, he ran into his own brother at a paleontology conference. But who runs into one's own \[ \sum_{j} \leq \prod_{j} \approx \bigcup_{j} \approx \bigcap_{j} \] brother at a paleontology conference? Except for those of us who have gone extinct...

3. Saba Ventus

f p

= ca. 76
Sa(-a)-ba(a) Ven tus lives in Red Deer, Alberta.

London. She lives in Trinidad and Tobago and in Grand Rapids, Michigan.
She lives on the front page of the Paris Review, among lilies and pipelines and in the center of Chicago.

She lives in Ahar with Azha Shahid Ali.
And she lives fully in Kashmir and New Delhi.